Fight For Children Hosts Fight Night 2013

Under Armour Chairs Event to Raise Millions for Kids in D.C. and Baltimore

WASHINGTON – June 25, 2013 — Fight For Children’s annual Fight Night fundraiser will be held on Thursday, November 14, 2013, bringing together heavyweights of business, government and philanthropy for an exciting knock-out evening. As D.C.’s premiere fundraising event, Fight Night aims to raise a record-breaking $3 million for Fight For Children to support essential programs that provide education and healthcare services to children in need. For the first time ever, with the support of Fight Night Chair Under Armour, the evening will Unite the Fight and fund programs in both D.C. and Baltimore. Raul Fernandez, vice chairman of Monumental Sports & Entertainment and Chairman of Fight For Children, will join Under Armour CEO Kevin Plank and his team to continue championing the legacy of Fight Night founder Joe Robert.

Fight Night will feature professional boxing events with legends of boxing such as Gerry Cooney, James ‘Buster’ Douglas, Aaron Pryor and Michael Spinks. Since 1990, Fight Night has raised tens of millions of dollars for local children’s education and healthcare services. About Fight For Children

The late Joseph E. Robert, Jr., created Fight For Children and Fight Night in 1990 as a way to marshal resources to help low-income kids in the nation’s capital secure a brighter future. Since 2012, Raul Fernandez, Vice Chairman of Monumental Sports and Entertainment, has served as Chairman of Fight For Children. Fight For Children programs focus on improving the quality of early childhood and K-12 education in DC. Fight Night brings together 2,000 heavyweights of business, government, entertainment and community service, as well as legends from the sports and boxing world, for an evening of fun, auctions, exciting entertainment and live professional boxing bouts. One of the most highly acclaimed events in Washington, Fight Night raises funds for Fight For Children and other organizations that provide education and healthcare services to low-income children in Washington, DC. Fight Night 2013 will stage at the Washington Hilton on November 14, 2013.
